Both the Pfizer/BioNTech and Oxford/AstraZeneca COVID-19 vaccines are now available. The NHS will contact you when it's the right time for you to come forward for the vaccine. You can find out more via <https://www.cambridgeshireandpeterboroughccg.nhs.uk/news-and-events/latest-news/covid-19-national-vaccination-programme/>

The NHS is vaccinating the most at risk groups in hospital hubs and at some GP practices. You will be contacted when it's the right time for you to come forward. Find out more about the local roll-out of the vaccination programme via <https://www.cambridgeshireandpeterboroughccg.nhs.uk/news-and-events/latest-news/covid-19-national-vaccination-programme/>

People who are eligible to receive the COVID-19 vaccine are being contacted via text, letter or phone call when it's the right time for them to be booked in. Please don't contact the NHS to book an appointment unless we have asked you to. Find out more via <https://www.cambridgeshireandpeterboroughccg.nhs.uk/news-and-events/latest-news/covid-19-national-vaccination-programme/>

If you have been offered a COVID-19 vaccination appointment, please attend this. You are still allowed to leave your home to attend your vaccination appointment, in line with national lockdown rules.
